

MY MATCHDAY THE STEWARD

I am one of the 1. _____ and it's my job to make sure fans are safe in the 2. _____.

My match day starts three hours before 3. _____. All the stewards and the police have a meeting. Today, I'm working in the biggest 4. _____ in the stadium – it has a capacity of 15,000 fans.

Two hours before kick off, we open the 5. _____ of the stadium and 6. _____ start to come in. I check each fan's 7. _____ and tell them where to sit.

The match starts, and the team are playing well, but I can't watch the football match! I watch the fans in case there are any problems. But there is only 8. _____ today because we win the match 4–0.

After the match, we tidy the stands. We sometimes find flags 9. _____ and even team 10. _____ on the seats! Today we won, so the happy fans take everything home. This makes my job easier!
